

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 8, 2021

Hollywood is not the only city to have a Walk of Fame; Arcadia also has a Walk of Fame. It is located at the Gilb Museum. But if you want to know more, you need to tune in to the Arcadia Community Coordinating Council meeting on November 1, 2021, to listen as Laura Heneforth tells us all about it.

Local resident and visual artist Laura Henneforth has called Arcadia home for almost 30 years. Her artwork has been displayed in various venues throughout Southern California. For nearly 10 years Laura has volunteered at the Gilb Museum of Arcadia Heritage as a member of the Speakers Bureau and overseeing the Arcadia Walk of Fame exhibit. She is an active member of the Pasadena Society of Artists and the SoPa art collective.

To learn more about Laura and the ArcadiaWalk of Fame, join the Arcadia Community Coordinating Council on November 4, 2021.

For reservations contact Linda Clelland, President, ACCC.

arcadiacommunitycouncil@gmail.com

Meeting Location & Information:

Monday, November 1, 2021

11:30 am – 1:30 pm

Meeting on Zoom

RSVP by Saturday, October 30, 2021