

Maestro Larry Blank in Conversation

Tuesday December 9th

Members Reception 6:15pm - Presentation 7pm

Post-event dessert for all 8pm

Pre and post event refreshments provided by the PCC Foundation

Resident conductor for the Pasadena Pops, Larry Blank is a Pasadena Hometown Legend. One of the most prolific and sought-after composers, conductors, and orchestrators in the industry, his work has been featured on Broadway, in movies and television and in concert halls around the world. Join us as we host an evening with Larry reflecting on a life in music in conversation with PCC music faculty.
